FREE Civil War Unit Study. By Carrie on December 13, 2017. If you're studying American history in your homeschool, it's just a matter of time before the Civil War appears on the horizon. You should consider the option of doing a unit study on the Civil War since there's so much to explore. If you live in or near the south, you should definitely plan on visiting some of the historical sites. Choose one Civil War battle. Create a model of the battle front and tell everything you can about the battle as you reenact it with the model. Choose one famous Civil War figure. Prepare a file folder biography about that person. Be sure to include pictures or illustrations when applicable. Either read or recite the Gettysburg Address.
